

9,827 likes

archdigest For some designers, it's all about the thrill of hunt. @mollybsims's designer @danscottidesign found 6 of these vintage Milo Baughman chairs from one dealer, but needed 10 to fit around the table. "I spent the next 48 hours scouring the internet. I found four with another so I was able to execute the deal at the exact same time. When I received them they were upholstered in black leather and they looked like they belonged in a bachelor apartment." To soften their look, he reupholstered them in "Fuzzy Wuzzy" faux fur fabric by Elizabeth Dow. See the full exclusive tour through the #linkinbio Photo by @petermurdockphotography

View all 59 comments

APRIL 8