KHLOE & KOURTNEY INSIDE THEIR HOMES

They may share interior designer in Martyr Lawrence Bullard, but when it comes to decorating their neighboring Calabasas, Calif., homes, sisters Khloé and Kourtney Kardashian have distinct (and equally cool) tastes. "Kourtney has a family home; it has to work for her kids," says Lawrence Bullard. "Khloé is a single mom and single mom, so we wanted the house to be very low-maintenance." Showing photos of their picks in Architectural Digest's March issue, the stars show off their ultra-hot carpets and new artwork. But Kourtney, a mom-of-three, drops her place is not formal. "It's such a magical world for my family and me. On weekends, we don't leave." —LORRAINE

MEET THE WINNER! My Diet Is Better Than Yours

Justin Quinn, 37, was shocked (and thrilled) to win the $100,000 prize of the ABC reality show Better Than Yours.

On Jan. 26, thanks to her 120-lb weight loss, her net worth was upgraded. "I came from the streets. I feel Justin [Quinn] was going to win," says her trainer, Drew Jackson (Bullock '82), creator of the Superfood Energy plan, which teaches athletes to cook healthier versions of their favorite foods. "She was super-ambitious just to lose weight but make it work." Admiring "every diet imaginable,"

Quinn was happy to find a regimen that plan: "I didn't have to drink some crazy drink or eat at certain times," she says. "I just had a figure that I wanted and I feel healthy and I made it." And now that the camera crew's still watching, will her health choices? "That's how I know this plan works." —BY ANNE MURPHY
