OLD WORLD BY THE OCEAN

ARCHITECT RICHARD LANDRY CREATES A LUXURY BEACH HOUSE
DESIGNED FOR FAMILY RELAXATION

TEXT BY JULIE GOODMAN

PHOTOGRAPHY BY ERHARD PFEIFFER

With its Mediterranean charm and high-tech interior, this beautiful beachside mansion in Southern California is carefully planned in every detail for family time, fun and relaxation. Inspired by a found photograph of a Tuscan villa, architect Richard Landry, AIA, of Landry Design Group, and interior designer Susan Cohen worked as equal partners with the client, in a collaboration as smooth as the white sand beach, made even easier by contractor George Pepper of Fort Hill Construction.

The oceanfront terrace with its fountain swimming pool, surrounded by two stories of shaded loggias, is designed for relaxed entertaining and family fun. Tables and chairs by Merle Sheridan of Mossie; Fortuny patterned umbrellas and slipcovers by Silkwool; lanterns are by Colburn & Schwartz.
