Next steps on your project:

what do you need to do engage with adg directly or thru your a&d professional when do you engage typically, adg comes in prior to rough electrical with an advanced deposit how do we work together or thru our a&d professional adg will do the heavy lifting and create one-of-a-kind designs  sketch or you can choose from over 1500 made before items  select or you're a&d professional can provide an item to be inspired  send where do we produce our products adg is a domestic manufacturer with global artisans. we ship worldwide who hires adg

your architect / design professional has included this in the plan set because adg is their trusted source you may hire adg directly, your contractor can make direct purchases, your designer can purchase or collaborate purchasing agents can work with us, and – direct purchase may be beneficial with our 3-tier pricing

why MADE-TO-ORDER

the #adgAdvantage – elevating the essence of architecture through the design & fabrication of lighting and furnishing with our collections thru the centuries ©

Architecture by nature is a collaboration of design professionals and the artisans that develop a unique experience for your project. Why would you buy off the shelf when making each piece to order is consequential to the process you are paying

Design – Budget – Time = our formula where, which ever comes first develops the scope for a successful project
